Leonie Meijer

Born September 4, 1985, Dutch singer and songwriter Leonie Meijer always performed as a singer in several bands, but her big break came when she performed as part of the 2010-2011 season of The Voice of Holland, eventually coming in fourth, but it allowed her to begin a recording career. The first two records 'Los' (2011) and 'Luister Maar' (2013) were produced by Daniel Gibson, her long time writing partner. The third album "The Naked Sessions" was released in October 2015. This album was recorded live in Fendal Sound Studio's in Holland, with a few of her closest musicians, with recording engineer Hans van Vondelen and produced by Jack Pisters and herself.

This year her new album 'NJ 123' will be released: her debut album on her own record label Frederick Records. Produced...
