AnnaGrace

Na Allow us some chauvinism. AnnaGrace (born as Annemie Coenen, 1978, Herk-de-Stad) has been – until further notice – the only Belgian musician who defeated Moby in a direct contest. It all happened at the 2002 Top of the Pop-Awards. Annemie, at that moment Ian Van Dahl's front lady, won the much contested and desired Dance Award for the song Castles In The Sky; she grasped it right from under the noses of Moby and Basement Jaxx. "I really don't know the winner that well," Moby said afterwards. "Now I know why Moby uses Martians in his video clips," Annemie answered. "Kinda unworldly, huh." The world press could not get enough of her quotes, and all of a sudden everybody knew la Coenen. Her international career was finally launched.

And look! Today, eight years later, the Limburg ambassador is still a cosmopolitan. S...
