For the big public, it all started out with "Gregory's Theme". Originally written as a classical homage to Hugh Laurie's iconic TV character, (Gregory) House, it eventually transformed into this epic dance record, turning heads everywhere and being championed from day one by the industry's biggest tastemaker, Mr Pete Tong himself. This resulted in a massive chart success and daytime radio airplay.

What followed were very well received remixes for Kylie Minogue, Moby and Sander Van Doorn, a remarkable set at Tomorrowland (with a grand white piano) and a new smashing hit single: "Again and Again".

The video topped more than one million views on Youtube in less than 8 weeks, and the single reached #4 on Beatport, holding a top 10 position for over a month. Now labels and radios world...
