Gregor Salto

Never satisfied with just one particular sound, Gregor constantly seeks to cross existing boundaries and take on new challenges. That's how he could rise to the top as one of Holland's most successful DJ's, while simultaneously using his own label G-Rex and side projects like Bateria to further widen his musical scope. Capturing all these organic influences into his own signature sound, Gregor has added an extra dimension to the digital world of dance music.

Young Gregor was struck by the house virus when he first heard Royal House's classic anthem "Can You Party" at a school dance. He then decided his life wouldn't be fulfilling without making beats of his own. After some years of experimenting on his dad's Amiga, Gregor debuted on Amsterdam's legendary Outland Records in 1994. Many other releases followed, mostly in the trance...
