Maddix

Pablo Rindt, better known as Maddix has been involved with music ever since he was born. His musical background of playing percussion, drums & piano helped him develop his newfound passion for electronic music production. After a few years of honoring his production skills and some releases on small labels, Pablo started fresh with a new name: Maddix.

In 2013, while studying at the University of the Arts Utrecht, he gained attention with his free downloads that got supported by the likes of Hardwell, Afrojack and Dimitri Vegas & Like Mike. His first official release was on Spinnin' Records, one of the worlds biggest dance music labels. Being recognized in the scene as a young and promising talent his next big step came with the release of 'Raise Em Up' on Armada Trice, which got premiered by no other than Dyro in his W...
