Max Graham

Max Graham needs no introduction, with trance hits like 'Sun in the Winter' and 'The Evil ID'. His legendary DJ sets prove that he knows how to make, play, and find special records that get the dance floor moving.

After returning to the scene in 2010, Max released the first artist album of his career entitled 'RADIO'. This album spawned such hits as 'Sun in the Winter' (feat. Neev Kennedy) and 'Nothing Else Matters' (feat. Ana Criado), both strongly supported by Markus Schulz and Armin van Buuren among other top-tier DJs. To further this massive year, Max released Volume 2 of his successful 'Cycles' compilation series, delivering a double CD of perfectly programmed melody, energy and emotion backed up by the newest addition to Di.fm's Progressive Station entitled 'Cycles Radio'.

2011 saw this momentum continue with 'So Ca...
