Rodg

Rodg, born Rogier de Kreuk, is one of the rare-breed of extremely consistent but underrated dance producers. The humble Dutchman is one of the best kept secrets of the Armada Music roster, but if you look into his discography and accomplishments, you'll find that there's much more than meets the eye.

The upcoming A State of Trance 650 Warm-up Sets (Mixed Live by Armin van Buuren) are full of Rodg productions, to the point that the Rodg sound has become inseparable from Armin's warm-up atmosphere. With an impressive string of features on Armada compilations of all kinds, Rodg has long defined the chill-out vibe that is so widely known and loved around the world. Laid-back and effortless, his productions define the sound of summer.

Even if you don't know the young producer by name, you almost certainly know his productions....
