

SYNQ

The driving force behind this innovative concept is Sander den Ouden, one of the most divers and approachable DJs in the Netherlands. Besides performing on stage (in- and outside of the Netherlands) Sander, formerly known as William Shagspeare, and one of the DJ's of Dutch DJ/MC combo "Gelazer", has been working hard on this new act.

SYNQ visualizes each and every song you hear during its DJ set real-time on a screen at your event. A combination of video, graphics, lyrics and music are basic essentials for this spectacular show. By perfectly SYNQronizing audio and video Sander creates an energetic atmosphere for his show! The show involves many aspects together with years of experience.
